

WATTERSON EATS WITH W. J. BRYAN

Editor Says Democrats Have Chance To Win.

The Johnson Movement Was Started Too Late.

NEBRASKIAN TALKS OF INCOME

William Jennings Bryan was in New York this week and was the guest of Henry Watterson at a breakfast on Monday morning.

With interviewers Mr. Bryan persistently avoided discussion of the political situation in New York, but of affairs in general Mr. Bryan talked freely, and on one topic, purely personal, he cheerfully made a formal statement. This had to do with his income. An interviewer had suggested that the Nebraskan, having been credited with an earning capacity of from $50,000 to $75,000 a year, might be exposed to the charge by opponents that he was no longer representative of the laboring class, but a full fledged plutocrat.

To this the candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination replied:

"My income is derived mainly from my lecturing with some addition from articles written for other publications, and something from my own paper, but the amount has been very much exaggerated. I make more speeches for nothing than for pay, and devote more time to public work than to private gain. The income that I have received has come from the people who attend my lectures and who read what I write, and therefore my obligation is to the whole people, rather than to any special class.

"The best test of the effect of my income is to be found in things that I advocate. My views have not changed upon public questions. I am contending for the same things now that I did then and think no one will deny that I could make more by siding with the corporate interests that I have opposed than I have made out of lecturing.

"My political prominence has been an advantage in that it has given me a large reading circle and a larger audience, but I could have used the prominence in other ways to greater pecuniary advantage.

Refused a Big Offer.
"For instance, I was offered $25,000 a year as counsel for a corporation but it would have taken me out of my political field. By lecturing and writing I can make what I need in for public work. Residents of Louisville half the time and have the rest for public work.

"President Cleveland found his law income larger after he was in the White House than before. So did President Harrison. This was the experience of Speaker Reed, after his service in Congress. Secretary Shaw found his services more valuable after he had been in the Cabinet.

"Political prominence is an asset in any kind of business. I could not have turned my attention to anything where it would not have been an advantage and had I used all of my time lecturing and writing I could have made twice as much as I have. The question is not whether I have made more than I did before I was nominated, but whether I have made it in a legitimate way, and I think no one will deny that my income has been derived from a legitimate source. The next question is whether the increase in my earning power has changed by views of public questions. No one, I think, will contend that it has."

Among the questions which Mr. Bryan did not answer was this one asked by a reporter: "Do you expect to be nominated for the presidency?"
"Well, this is refreshing," said Mr. Bryan, with a smile, "I presume you have read Caesar, young man, and will remember that the book reads, 'All Gaul is divided into three parts.' If Julius Caesar had known you before he wrote that book, he probably would have struck out two of the parts."

Mr. Watterson said there was nothing in his conversation with Mr. Bryan at breakfast that he cared to make public. "Personally, I have no doubt that Mr. Bryan will be nominated at Denver," said the editor, "and I think that we have a good chance to elect him. The movement in the interest of Gov. Johnson comes too late and from the wrong quarter.

ELECTION CALLED

To Vote on Question of Saloons in Scott County.

After hearing the argument by B. Finnell, Jr., for the local option petitioners for an election in Scott county, on June 27th, and B. M. Lee, for the saloon men of Georgetown as to the proper time for setting the election in the county, Judge Yates fixed July 14th for a special registration.

Mr. Finnell for the petitioners argued that the date named for the election would give the saloon men time to file a separate petition. The city of Georgetown would not, under the saloon men reasonable time to file a separate petition. Arguments, Judge Yates fixed July 14th as above stated. The petitioners county election contained 1,397 signatures, and was filed with the county clerk on Thursday afternoon; about a week after they began to be circulated. Those who circulated the petitions stated that had it been necessary fully twice as many signatures could have been secured.

RIFLE RANGE IN FRANKLIN COUNTY.

MILITIA WILL SHOOT AT KEN-
NEBEC STATION AGAIN
THIS YEAR.

Capt. Jackson Morris, representing the Adjutant-General's department, has leased the rifle range, which was used last year by the militia of the State, and possession will be taken on May 15. The range is two miles from Frankfort, near Kennebec Station, on the L. & N. railroad and is regarded as one of the best locations for a rifle range in the country. It has a range of 1,000 yards on the level, with a high hill in the background to catch the bullets. The entire militia of the State probably will be trained on this range, and it is hoped that a first class team can be made up to represent Kentucky at the national shoot which will be held in August. It was intended at first to locate the range near Louisville, as a suitable location had been secured near there, but it was decided to use the one leased last year, or account of the fact that it already is in shape to be used, and no money need be spent to put it in condition.

Capt. Morris probably will be captain and also a member of the team from Kentucky this year. He was barred last year on account of having shot on the District of Columbia team the year before, and the rule being that a man must skip a year before joining another team. Capt. Morris probably will be designated by the Adjutant-General as the captain, and will gain have charge of the men on the range. He is an expert shot and understands how to teach the men to shoot.

COURT OF APPEALS GIVEN A SHOCK.

YOUNG LAWYER MOVES THAT HE BE SWORN IN AS AT-TORNEY.

Charles Orrin Pearce, of Butte, Mont., who is a general utility man, having been a scout, Indian fighter, gun man, soldier, poet and author, shocked the Court of Appeals greatly and was sat upon hard. Mr. Pearce has been attending the law school at Central University in Danville, and on last Saturday was sworn in as a member of the bar of Kentucky after examination at Lexington. He came to Frankfort to be sworn in before the Court of Appeals but did not know anybody here. He was not at all backward about it, though, and when he says the court about to adjourn without being sworn in he arose and made the motion that he be admitted. The court was surprised and the judges looked shocked, but they rallied sufficiently to overrule the motion. Later Charles Schoolfield, an attorney of Frankfort, was notified that a Danville man was in trouble, so he went after Mr. Pearce and introduced him to Judge Hobson, who swore Mr. Pearce in as a member of the bar before the Court of Appeals.

Too much advertising is injurious to some businesses in the same way that too much chopping spoils mince-meat. It is as difficult to advertise some businesses too much as to chop mince meat too fine.

Frankfort began the season with a victory over the way the team played the chances for the pennant flying in the Capital City look to be good. Shelbyville was beaten Wednesday in the first game Frankfort has played, and while the game was close the Frankfort team actually was a great deal better than the other fellows. The score was 5 to 2, and was due to all around good playing by the whole team. Frankfort will play at home Sunday and expects to win again. Frankfort leads the league, although tied with Richmond and Versailles, each of which has won one game.

Following is the game by innings:

First Inning.
Long and Owen battery for Shelys. Long fanned Williams and Nell, first men up. Allison went to first on balls, meier's double to right. Wright doubled to center, Angy scoring. Burge fanned. Two runs.

Second Inning.
Crutcher out, Lally to first, Kaelin out by same route, Cornell out pitcher to first. Secrest forced Owen at second on a grounder, Mehan fanned. No runs.

Third Inning.
Williams out short to first, Nell and Allison fanned. No runs.
Stratton safe on error of third baseman, Sanders sacrificed, Stratton took third, when pitcher threw ball to center enough foxes to hunt, and it is probably doubtful if Mr. Wells will get his thousand foxes. If he should get that number and pen them up in one place it would make a great and curious sight.

ter field trying to catch him napping Long fanned. Nally out pitcher to first. No runs.

Fourth Inning.
Angy safe on wild throw of third baseman, but thrown out by Owen trying to steal second; Wright flew to pitcher, Wright safe on error of first baseman; Crutcher out third to first. No runs.
Harris, first man up, singled to center; Perkins followed with another beauty to the same territory; Owen waited and walked. Bases full and none out, golden opportunity for Shelys to score. Secrest flew to center field and Harris should have scored on the out, but failed to try; Mehan and Stratton struck out, ending the agony. No runs.

Fifth Inning.
Kaelin flew to short, Mehan making fine catch; Cornell flew to short; Nell fanned. No runs.
Senders struck out; Long singled to left and went to second on wild throw to first to catch him napping; Lally fanned and Harris out on fly to center. No runs.

Sixth Inning.
Allison walked, but caught at second trying to steal; Angy flew to left, Sanders making a rank muff; Burge hit in front of plate and safe on Long's wild throw to first, Angy scoring. Crutcher hit to short, Wright being caught between third and home; Kaelin's grounder was fumbled by Mehan, Burge scoring. Crutcher scored on a wild pitch. Cornell ended the inning by a fly to right center, which was captured by Perkins after a hard run. Three runs.

For the Shelys, Perkins out on fly to short, Owen flew to center, Secrest out on grounder, short to first. No runs.
Seventh Inning.
Williams safe when first baseman fumbled his grounder. Nell sacrificed; Allison out short to first; Angy out catcher to first. No runs.
Mehan walked and went to second on throw to catch him napping; Sanders sacrificed; Long singled to center, Mehan scoring. Lally doubled, Long scoring from first; Harris out on fly to centerfield. Two runs.

Eighth Inning.
Wright out second to first; Burge flew to center, Perkins fell as he caught the ball, but held to it; Crutcher fanned. No runs.
Perkins out third to first; Owen flew to right; Secrest on on fly to right. No runs.
Ninth Inning.
Kaelin out on grounder second to first; Williams walked. Williams and Nell fanned. No runs.
Mehan flew to off; Stratton out to pitcher; Sanders fanned.

er fanned. No runs.
Perkins out third to first; Owen flew to right; Secrest on on fly to right. No runs.

The Score.

Easy for Versailles.
VERSAILLES.—Before one of the largest crowds ever seen on the local grounds Versailles defeated Lexington by the score of 13 to 0. The game was out in full force. The boys outplayed the Distillers at every point of the game, and under careful coaching of Captain Billy O'Connell, showed that Manager Meek had a timely lot of youngsters together.

Hall made a fine game for the home team, and he will no doubt make a fast company.
Big Ed Elgin caught in perfect form, made a hit with the local fans.

Play Twelve Innings.
RICHMOND.—One of the most exciting and interesting games of baseball witnessed on the old Central University ball park, was seen when the opening Blue Grass League game between Richmond and Lexington was played. It took twelve innings to decide the game in Richmond's favor by the score of 3 to 2. The Lexington boys arrived at 2:30 o'clock in automobiles and headed the march from down town to the ball ground followed by a brass band and more than a thousand people.

Cough Up

The U. S. Postoffice Department has made a new ruling, requiring all publishers of newspapers to exact the pay in advance for all subscribers whose papers are carried in the mails at the second-class rate, or one cent per pound. Otherwise the postage rate would be prohibitory. All publishers are given a limited time in which to adjust their subscription list to the new ruling. Therefore all our subscribers are requested to at once pay up in advance, else when the time limit expires we shall be compelled to stop sending the paper except to those who have paid in advance.
